If no further withdrawal is contemplated, the excess amount together with the interest thereon at the rate prescribed under rule 13.13 should be deposited forthwith into the Fund.

13.29-E.(1)(i). Any sum withdrawn by a subscriber under clause (c) of rule 13.29-B from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund shall be normally limited to one half of such amount or six months' pay whichever is less.

(ii) If two or more marriages are to be celebrated simultaneously the amount admissible in respect of marriage shall be determined as if the advances are sanctioned separately one after the other.

(iii), In respect of the same marriage a subscriber may either withdraw the money under this or under rule 13.14.

(iv) A subscriber who draws a refundable advance under rule 13.14 may convert, at his discretion by written request addressed to the Accounts Officer through the sanctioning authority, the outstanding balance into a final withdrawal on his satisfying the conditions laid down in rule 13.29-B.

(v) The withdrawal may be allowed to a subscriber not earlier than three months preceding the month in which the marriage actually takes place.

(vi) The subscriber shall furnish a certificate to the sanctioning authority in the 'Administrative Agent' within the period of one month from the date of marriage, or if he is on leave, within 15th or return from leave that the money withdrawn had actually been utilised for the purpose for which it was intended. If the subscriber fails to furnish the requisite certificate or if the amount withdrawn is used for a purpose other than that for which sanction was given, the entire amount together with the interest thereon at the rate prescribed under rule 13.13 shall be redeposited forthwith into the Fund in lump sum by the subscriber and, if he fails to do so, it shall be ordered by the sanctioning authority to be recovered from his emoluments either in a lump sum or in such number of monthly instalments, as may be determined by the authority.

(vii) Any amount actually withdrawn from the Fund, which is found to be in excess of that actually required by the subscriber for the purpose for which it was withdrawn shall be redeposited forthwith into the Fund together with interest due thereon at the rate prescribed under rule 13.13 and, if he fails to do so, the sanctioning authority shall order its recovery from his emoluments in the manner laid down in clause (vi).

Note 1.—A subscriber has to apply for final withdrawal sufficiently in advance of the date of marriage. Here, however, a subscriber applies for the withdrawal well before the date of marriage but the withdrawal sanctioned after such date, there will be no objection to the payment of the amount being made after the date of marriage. The certificate in terms of clause (vi) above should be furnished in such cases to the sanctioning authority within a month of the actual withdrawal of the amount from the Fund. Cases, in which the withdrawal is applied for after the celebration of marriage, should not ordinarily be entertained.

Note 2.—In sanctioning non-refundable advances under this rule, the temporary advances, outstanding against the subscriber, if any, will not be taken into account.

(2) (i) Any sum withdrawn by a subscriber under clause (d) of rule 13.29-B from the amount owing to his credit in the Fund shall be normally limited to one-half of such amount or three months' pay whichever is less :

Provided that in special cases, the sanctioning authority may relax the limit of three months' pay but a case withdrawal exceeding six months' pay may be sanctioned.

(ii) The other terms and conditions will be the same as laid down in sub-rule (1).
